

Guidelines of the Awards for PJTSAU
Best Research Paper with highest NAAS rating &
Teacher / Research Scientist / Extension Scientist with Highest Funded
External Project

- It is proposed by the University to give the above two awards in the University Foundation Day.
- The objective is to provide recognition to the outstanding Teacher/Research Scientist / Extension Scientist and promote quality and excellence in Teaching/Research/Extension.
- The awards consists of cash prize of Rs.10,000/-,Certificate and a Memento (each)

The awards proposed for :

I. “Best research Paper with Highest NAAS rating”

1. The award will be given to the Teacher/Research Scientist/Extension Scientist who has published his/her research findings in standard national or international journals with highest NAAS rating during the last two years preceding May, 2020.
2. The research work must have been carried out by staff and or research work of the student of PJTSAU.
3. To be eligible for this award, the applicant must have published her/her research paper with NAAS rating of 6 and above.
4. The publications of First Author and Second Author only will be considered for the award.
5. The candidate must submit the copies of research papers published with NAAS rating.
6. The published article must have been uploaded on staff data base only will be considered.
7. The University reserves the right to select or not any of t he applicants for the award.

II. Teacher / Research Scientist / Extension Scientist with Highest Funded External Project :

1. The award will be given to the Teacher/Research Scientist/Extension Scientist who was awarded the projects with highest funding as Principal Investigator and / or Co-Principal Investigator during the last three years preceding May, 2020.
2. Preference will be given to the projects sanctioned under competitive grants by funding agency.
3. The Scientist/faculty obtaining the projects under RKVY, Network, Paid-up trails of private agencies etc., will not be considered for the award.
4. The University reserves the right to select or not any of the applicants for the award.