

Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), New Delhi

Adhoc Research Projects

- To cooperate in conducting research through All India Coordinated Research Projects (AICRPs) / Revolving Fund Scheme / and any other such schemes funded / sanctioned by the Council under various schemes to the Host Institute from time to time at specified locations (s) under the specified Supervisor / Principal Investigator / Leader of the Host Institution.
- The Scientific staff provided exclusively for the project at the Council's cost would be utilized exclusively for the project work.
- To provide and allow the Project Supervisor / Principal Investigator / Leader to interact and exchange scientific materials, technologies, literature etc. to other Research Centres within the state as well as outside the state and to all others, once specifically asked for by the Council.
- To permit the scientific staffs to attend relevant Workshop, Seminars, Symposium, Conferences, Group Meetings etc., organized by the Council / Host Institution as per mandate of the project.

Website Link: www.icar.org.in